

You would think that in a city the size of Denver, Colorado there would be a greater number of Christian FM radio formats. BUT THERE ARE NOT!

KLOVE, heard on 91.1 FM, is one of only two Christian FM stations and KLOVE is the only non-commercial station that plays just music.

It's nice to be able to tune in to a station with my kids in the car and not worry about what's going to come next from the DJ or the lyrics in the music.

I don't know what the market is for LPFM stations but it's not always about the money. Replacing a "listener supported" station, one that obviously has a strong following, with something else makes no sense.

Thank You,
